

2006 T.A.A.F. Male Athlete of the Year

Adam Cashion

Boerne, Texas

2006 Member of the City of Boerne Barracuda Swim Team

A rising star among his fellow team members

Demonstrates hard work, perseverance and team spirit that lead to achieve success in and out of the swimming pool

Is that beacon of success and satisfaction that every child strives to be

His delightful spirit leads him to the true successes enjoyed from being part of a team

Has experienced the fun of being part of a team

Has experienced the thrill that comes with completing something you start

Improved strokes and swam faster as the season progressed

Has experienced the joy of the crowd of teammates and spectators cheering for him

Filled with pride and determination he never quit the race but went for the finish

Has enjoyed the true meaning of sports by the inherent dream that all athletes feel:

The pride in oneself for trying

The joy of screaming cheers for your team

The humility that win or lose, I gave it my best effort and I am very satisfied

Adam has been a great teacher of unconditional love, patience, acceptance, tolerance, understanding and perseverance.

Participates in Special Olympics swimming, bowling, basketball and track and field

2004-2005 Received the Improvement Award for Special Olympics in Boerne

2006 Received the President's Cup Award – Boerne Barracudas
