

TAAF Games of Giving

FAQ's

1. Who can participate? Answer- the TAAF Games of Giving are open to anyone and everyone. From Athletes, Coaches, Mom, Dad, Friends, Family and your next door neighbor.
2. How much does it cost? Answer- $0 It's FREE, no entry fee, NO registration fee! 100% of the proceeds benefit fellow Texans.
3. How does it work? Answer – Do one of 4 things and WIN A MEDAL! 1. Drop off 10 nonperishable goods (sample list available on www.taaf.com/gamesofgiving) at a designated drop off location (list available on www.taaf.com/gamesofgiving) 2. Donate $5 to Feeding Texas (click HERE to donate) 3. Donate Blood at a local Blood Bank (list of Blood Banks) 4. Do a “good deed” example- Doing a favor for a neighbor or friend, cleaning up a public place, being a pen pal to an elderly person or volunteering at a food bank or church. The list is endless! Just do something nice and tell us about it!
4. Can I win more than one medal? Answer YES! The program starts the week of July 6th and a participant can win one medal per week by completing one of the 4 ways to win by each Friday. (the week medal opportunity ends 7/10, 7/17, 7/24 and 7/31) You could win up to 4 medals!
5. Are there different levels of giving to win different colored medals? Answer – NO, all qualifying “gifts of giving” are treated the same. Medal colors will be drawn randomly! It's the thought or the act that counts!
6. How do I get my medal? Answer- Most medals will be mailed out on Monday's starting 7/13 and ending on 8/3. There will be some random “pop-up” live in person award presentations, where a TAAF representative will be at different Parks and Recreation Departments around the State. Times and locations will be announced on TAAF Nation Facebook page on Wednesday's prior to the Thursday or Friday award presentations.
7. Are these real Games medals? Answer – Yes, these are leftover medals from past Games that TAAF is repurposing for a good cause!
